Take hope in and celebrate all those who have risked their lives to protect human rights.

"You in your element and the person who has died, in his or her element can work on the same issues and come to a deeper understanding even though the illusion says you are totally separated. Your truth can propel the lifted one into growth. Quite the opposite from what most people believe."

from the book of "Emmanuel"

Our personal loss of Terence Unity Freitas has been graced with an outpouring of sympathy and support from all over the world.
